

Activate Urkund when you create an assignment

Updated: 2019-09-06

The Urkund integration in Learn makes it possible for you to automatically check for plagiarism in student texts submitted in Learn. This manual explains how to activate Urkund when you create an assignment.

1

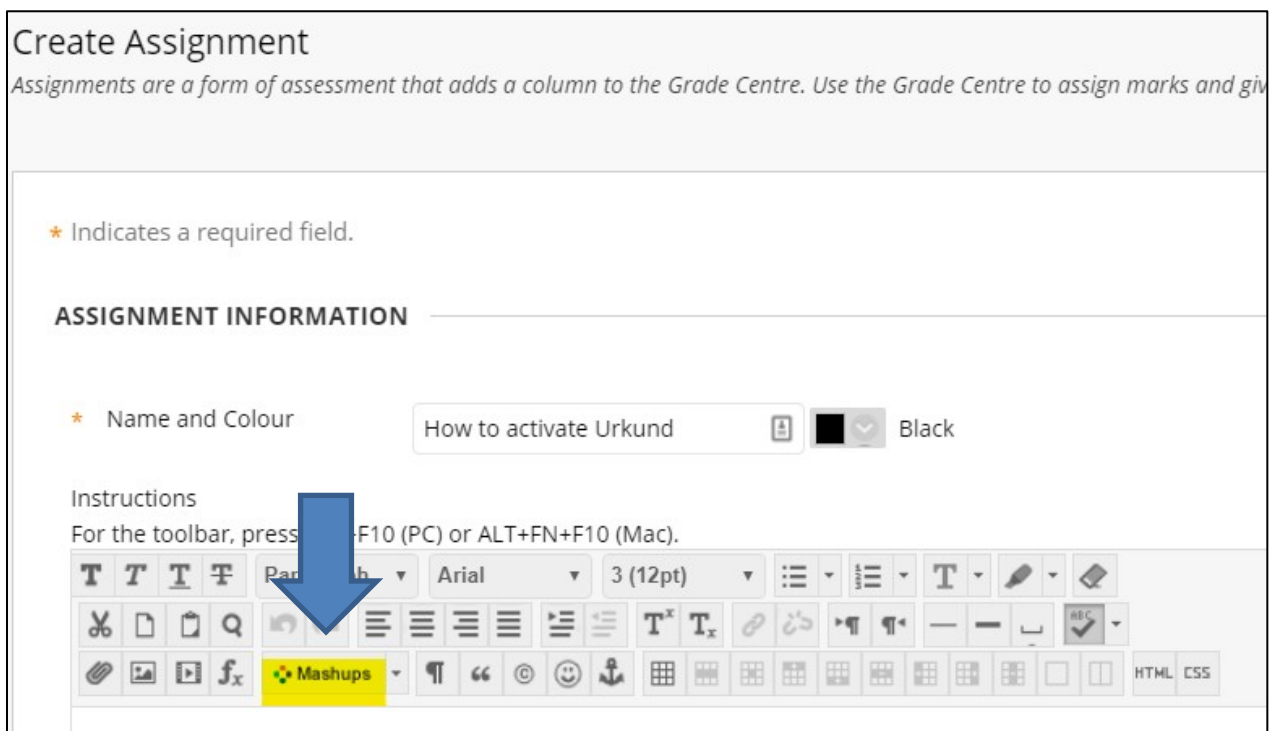

Create Assignment

2.

Find the settings for Urkund in the text editor

You find and activate Urkund for an assignment by clicking 'Mashups'. Mashups is found in the text editor.

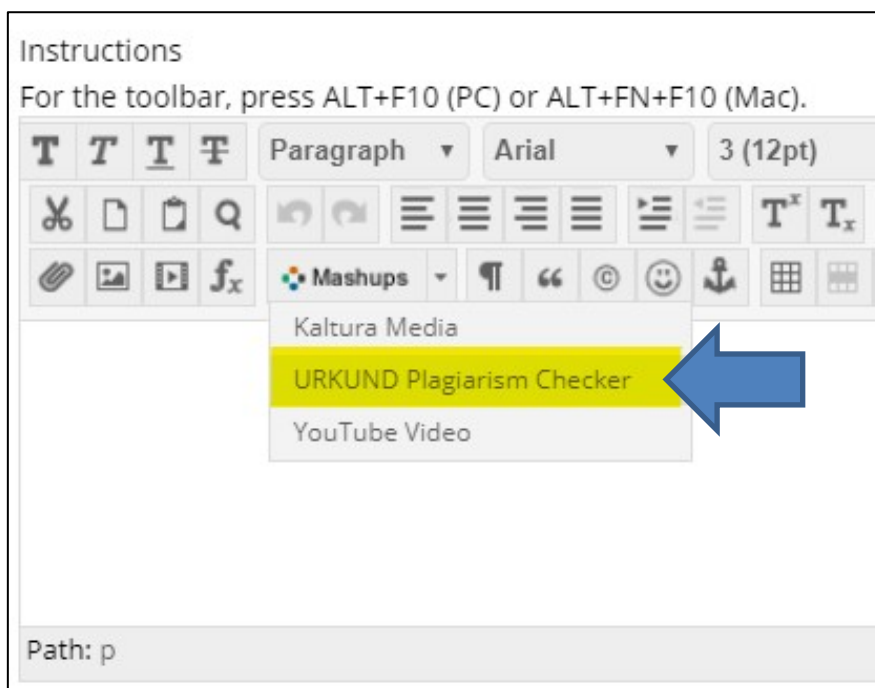

If you cannot see the alternative Mashups as in the image above, then you need to open the editor in the righthand corner (see below).

3. Choose Urkund

There are three alternatives under Mashups. Choose 'URKUND Plagiarism Checker'.

Your user in Urkund

When you click on the text 'URKUND Plagiarism Checker' you will see a box with several options. If you do not have a user in Urkund already one will automatically be created for you now based on your email address at Dalarna University.

 Allow a student to view originality report
 Include similarity score in Grade Center
A similarity score column with the assignment name followed by '- Similarity Score' will also be added to the Grade Center. By default the column will be hidden from students.

Should the report be visible for students??

If you want the students to be able to see the plagiarism report you need to actively choose to do so here. Tick the box "Allow a student to view originality report".
